

6423
FLORA

OUT AND ABOUT IN GEORGETOWN

The thrill of coming home to Seattle's coolest neighborhood

Ten years ago, Georgetown was coined an up and coming neighborhood. Fast forward to today, the residential population has nearly doubled, making Georgetown one of Seattle's most desirable places to live. According to Locals "98% say it's dog friendly and 92% say it's easy to walk to restaurants".

FAMOUS FOR:

- Seattle's oldest neighborhood
- Industrial Bohemian Chic
- Home of Seattle's Design Center
- Some of the best restaurants in Seattle
- Neighborhood to Boeing Field
- Strong Artist Community
- The historic Rainier Brewing Company
- Historical brick buildings and cobblestone streets
- World Headquarters for Dwell Development, LLC

EATING, DRINKING AND ENTERTAINMENT:

- Home to over a dozen tap rooms and breweries
- Home to several renown wineries and tap rooms
- Restaurant Row with dozens of dining options
- Coffee Shops, bakeries, sub shops, and delis
- Barbeque, pizza, and ethnic cuisine
- Bars, nightlife and music scene

SHOPPING:

- Vintage Boutiques
- Antique Stores
- Consignment Shops
- Home goods stores
- Franz Chocolates
- Art Galleries
- Georgetown Records

Susan Stasik | Managing Broker | Windermere Real Estate Co. | 206-660-1012 | susan@windermere.com

Information contained herein is provided as a courtesy only, is not a warranty, and should be independently investigated by Buyers.

OUT AND ABOUT IN GEORGETOWN

The thrill of coming home to Seattle's coolest neighborhood

GETTING AROUND:

Quick access to 1-5, I-90, West Seattle, Hwy 99
124 Metro direct to Downtown
5 Miles to Downtown Seattle
10 miles to SeaTac
5 miles to Pioneer Square and Stadium District

PARKS:

OxBow Park (aka: Hat n' Boots Park)
Georgetown Co-op Pea Patch
Georgetown PlayFields

SCHOOLS:

South Seattle Community College – Georgetown Campus
SANCA (School of Acrobatics and New Circus Acts)
Georgetown Drum School
Georgetown Atelier
Miller School of Arts
Rainier Glass Studio

FESTIVALS AND COMMUNITY:

Garden Walk
Honkfest West
Georgetown Carnival
Georgetown Bites
Farmer's Market – Seasonal
Brew Hop
Art Attack Art Walk – 2nd Saturday of each month
Great Pumpkin Beer Festival
Poetry Open Mic night

Susan Stasik | Managing Broker | Windermere Real Estate Co. | 206-660-1012 | susan@windermere.com

Information contained herein is provided as a courtesy only, is not a warranty, and should be independently investigated by Buyers.